PARIS, FRANCE

Favorites	Notes
Frenchie	Still my favorite. Tip: queue to get into the wine bar next door as soon as it opens as it serves the same menu.
Pierre Herme	Go for the legendary macarons, stock up on the Chloe chocolates.
Holybelly	Go for breakfast or brunch. It's definitely new wave “French," if at all French, but it's so good!
Cafe Brezh	Delicious crepes, gallettes, and cider. Order a double.
Paris Museum of Modern Art (MAM)	The Matisse room is a must on any visit and the rotating modern art shows are some of the best in the business.
La Maison du Pastel	A quaint kind of shop that only exists in France, it seems.
Galerie Perrotin	Exciting, curated art gallery in a beautiful courtyard in the Marais.
Piscine Molitor	This used to be a public outdoor pool (built in 1929), but is now a hotel with a stunning summertime bar.
